

JOB DESCRIPTION

Title	Executive Support Officer, Business Development 9 Month FTC (0.5 FTE)
Department	Business Development
Responsible to	Group Director Business Development
Location	Perth (work from home is an option or office based at Stirling)

Overall Purpose/Aim:

The Executive Support Officer Business Development is responsible for the management and delivery of confidential executive administrative and support services to the Group Director Business Development. The Executive Officer should set exemplary standards of behaviour and performance, promoting the culture, purpose and values of Key Assets, and work collaboratively with respect and integrity.

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Provide high level executive support to the Group Director Business Development, including the preparation of data extracts and reports.
- Provide support to committees and working groups, including preparation of agendas and papers, meeting minutes and action logs.
- Provide Executive Support as required to the Business Development team.
- Manage communications including briefings, reports and submissions with internal and occasionally, external, stakeholders.
- Contribute to projects to support the achievement of organisation level strategic and operational objectives.
- Assist with the development, implementation and evaluation of administrative practices, systems and procedures to optimise efficiency and support the achievement of quality outcomes.
- Work with the Executive Officer (CEO) and other business support staff across the organisation as required.
- Provide general administration support including diary management, travel bookings, correspondence, filing and other tasks as directed by the Group Director Business Development.

WORKING IN PARTNERSHIP

- Be culturally aware and competent and respond accordingly when dealing with staff, carers people with different cultural backgrounds
- Work to deadlines and respond in a flexible way to the changing demands of Key Assets work, including ensuring that Key Assets customers are responded to promptly and professionally
- Attend and participate in team meetings, training courses, supervision sessions and appraisals punctually and well prepared, as appropriate and when required

This role will involve virtual ways of working and occasional travel interstate, including overnight stays away from home.

Additional Duties

- The post holder will be expected to demonstrate the Key Assets' purpose and values
- The post holder will be expected to undertake any training and development deemed necessary for the pursuance of the post.
- The post holder will be expected to reach a minimum basic standard of I.T. competence to be able to use Company electronic systems effectively
- The post holder will be expected to ensure compliance with Equal Opportunities Policy and Procedure in all employment practices.
- The post holder will be expected to work in a manner which is inclusive of all employees and stakeholders, which includes Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander's, people who identify as LGBTI, people of all ages, people with disability and those from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.
- The post holder will be expected to comply with the no smoking policy in place and ensure that Health and Safety is observed in the course of employment
- Ensuring compliance with safeguarding procedures, throughout all work within the Company, keeping Senior Management informed of work in progress and inform Senior Management immediately of any child protection matter or serious complaint.

It is the nature of work of the post that tasks and responsibilities are, in many circumstances, unpredictable and varied. All staff are, therefore, expected to work in a flexible way when the occasion arises where tasks are not specifically covered in the Job Description and have to be undertaken.
